INDICTMENT

CR 12-85 JNE/AJB

(18 U.S.C. § 371)

(18 U.S.C. § 1343)

(18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C))

THE UNITED STATES GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

1. At all times relevant to this Indictment, defendants Troy Allen Huston (hereinafter, "Huston") and Chad Arthur Anderson (hereinafter, "Anderson") were individual residents of the State of Minnesota.

2. At all times relevant to this Indictment, defendants Huston and Anderson worked as loan officers at Prestige Mortgage, LLC, a mortgage brokerage business located in White Bear Lake, Minnesota. In that capacity, Huston and Anderson brokered or "originated" mortgage loans by finding borrowers, preparing loan applications based upon the financial characteristics of those borrowers, and then submitting those applications to lenders to induce lenders to loan to those borrowers.

RICHARD D. SLETTEN, CLERK
JUDGMENT ENTD
DEPUTY CLERK

U.S. v. Troy Allen Huston, et al.

3. At all times relevant to this Indictment, defendants Huston and Anderson were signatories or controlling designated members with governance rights for Lofton Property Management, LLC (Lofton), a property management business located in Chisago City, Minnesota. Lofton received illicit funds from the closings of the fraudulent transactions described below which Huston and Anderson then disbursed to themselves and to borrowers that Huston and others had qualified for property purchases, without the knowledge of the lenders that funded those property purchases.

4. At all times relevant to this Indictment, defendant Huston was signatory and designated member for YES Financial, LLC, a property finance business located in Chisago City, Minnesota. In that capacity, Huston received title closing disbursements of lender funds, received funds from Lofton, and signed checks and made disbursements to himself, family members and others.

(18 U. S. C. § 371: Conspiracy to Commit Mortgage Fraud
Through Use of the Interstate Wires)

5. Beginning in approximately 2006 and continuing through 2007, in the State and District of Minnesota, the defendants,

CHAD ARTHUR ANDERSON, and TROY ALLEN HUSTON,

U.S. v. Troy Allen Huston, et al.

did unlawfully and knowingly conspire, combine, confederate and agree with other persons known and unknown to the grand jury to commit an offense against the United States, that is, to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud mortgage-lending institutions located throughout the United States, and to obtain money and property from mortgage-lending institutions by means of material false and fraudulent representations and promises and, for the purpose of executing such scheme, to cause to be transmitted by means on interstate wire certain writings, signs, signals, pictures and sounds, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343.

OBJECT OF THE CONSPIRACY

6. It was the object of the conspiracy to recruit numerous straw buyers, mainly friends and acquaintances of defendants Huston and Anderson, to purchase entirely with fraudulently borrowed funds numerous homes in the Twin Cities Metropolitan area at inflated prices, and then to distribute the loan proceeds to Huston, Anderson and the straw buyers and investors, and other persons involved in the transactions without the knowledge or consent of the lenders, occasioning losses to those lenders exceeding $1,800,000.

U.S. v. Troy Allen Huston, et al.

MANNER AND MEANS

It was part of the conspiracy that from in or about 2006 through 2007:

7.

- a. Defendants Huston and Anderson recruited straw buyers to purchase numerous homes in the Twin Cities at inflated prices with borrowed funds;
- b. arranged for a colluding, unindicted appraiser to prepare appraisals for the properties supporting the inflated prices;
- c. obtained mortgage loans for the straw buyers in the full amount of the inflated purchase prices (less a down payment amount usually provided by a third party) by filling out loan applications for the straw buyers which in most cases were materially false and misleading in that many of the loan applications overstated the straw buyers' income; misrepresented their employment; falsely stated that the straw buyers intended to utilize the properties as their primary residences; and in many cases failed to disclose other mortgage obligations incurred by the straw buyers pursuant to the scheme.

U.S. v. Troy Allen Huston, et al.

- d. Defendant Huston and Anderson provided down payment assistance to the straw buyers and unwitting investors which was not disclosed to the lenders;
- e. arranged for a title company to close each of the transactions and placed Lofton on closing settlement statements and sworn construction statements which substantiated disbursements to Lofton from lender loan proceeds for fictitious property management services; and
- f. provided financial payments to the straw buyers from loan proceed disbursements obtained by Lofton without the knowledge or consent of the lenders.

8. Each of the loans involved in the scheme described above went into default, occasioning losses to the lenders involved in the transactions exceeding $1.8 million.

OVERT ACTS
